Apartment Variances Granted

By split-vote, city council Monday night cleared a much-debated roadblock as the Caesar-Callan corporation was granted two variances in its $5½ million apartment house project west of Junipero Serra.

With Mayor Joseph Verducci and Del Wilson opposing, the majority granted the variance on two parcels of the six-parcel property, but only with special provisions.

The subdividers got approval of variances on the number of garage spaces and on building setbacks. Under the council edict, the two variances do not mean that similar variances will be granted on the rest of the project.

Verducci, against the two variances because the Caesar-Callan firm was "unwilling to put these agreements with us in writing," lashed Tom Callan Jr., spokesman for the subdividers, for his repeated hesitation on commitments.

Callan, in many recent pleas to the council, maintained that the two variances should be granted independent of the proposed assessment district.

He had opposed an all-inclusive agreement on improvements claiming it would "tie our hands" because the city would handle the engineering and legal matters of the assessment district.

A well-known Daly City barber spent the night in the Daly City jail last week, but he wasn't under arrest.

The elderly gent lost his keys late at night and was locked out of his home.

Since he was carrying the week's receipts with him, he thought a night in the clink might be safer than wandering the streets.

Cops opened the door to the select address above, and the barber spent a very comfortable night.

CITY VACANCIES FILLED

Name Librarian, Manager's Aide

Appointment of a new city librarian and administrative assistant was announced to the council Monday night by City Manager Howard Stites.

Taking the library vacancy on January 15 will be Samuel P. Chandler, 38, of Provo, Utah, current science librarian at Brigham Young University.

Chandler was one of two candidates interviewed by the personnel and library boards after taking the competitive exam. Replacing Miss Patricia Clark, who resigned to take a position in San Luis Obispo, Chandler will start at a salary of $469 a month.

Chandler, who also teaches library classes at BYU, received his B.S. and M.A. degrees at the Provo university, then went on to Peabody College in Nashville, Tennessee, for his M.S. in library science.

Phillip J. Brown, 26, a 1957 graduate of San Francisco State college, reports here December 9 as administrative assistant. Judged best of 15 applicants, he will start at $425 a month.

Brown is the replacement for Fred Avilez, who recently took a similar administrative post at San Francisco State college.

Both the local school district and San Francisco appeared to accept the decision as at least a temporary solution to the bitter controversy that has raged over the district's acquisition of land in San Francisco county.

State Finance Director John M. Pierce said funds for that portion of the Gen. Pershing school within San Mateo county would be released, but that the remaining finances for the San Francisco land would be withheld.

Some $460,000 is involved for the entire 10-acre site, of which the district will receive about 70 per cent from the state to start the land acquisition project.

San Francisco officials have repeatedly protested the taking of SF land and have given notice that any attempt to do so will bring on court action.

Since this could delay the school site acquisition for years, Jefferson officials accepted the compromise in order to complete negotiations for purchase of the seven acres in San Mateo county.

The committee appointed by San Mateo county supervisors to investigate the establishment of superior court sessions in South San Francisco will hold its third meeting Friday, December 6.

In the committee's two previous meetings, matters considered were: the establishment of adequate quarters for the court and related offices, such as the county clerk; the nature and type of case which can properly and conveniently be heard; the manner of determining the assignment of cases; the method of empaneling juries; the place and manner of filing legal documents, and the maximum utilization of the present court personnel.

Should the superior court offices be established in South San Francisco, newly appointed Superior Judge Frank Blum would preside. Judge Blum filled the sixth department of the superior court, but sessions for the new department are still held at the county courthouse.

3-2 Council Decision Saves Auld Xmas Tree

Expensive or not, the city council by 3-2 vote Monday night kept Daly City's traditional Christmas tree at the end of Peoria street on the hill a going project.

Councilman Sanford Vickers, claiming the city Xmas tree in the past "brought us much comment and is the best advertisement for the community," got support on his motion from Del Wilson and Michael DeBernardi.

Opposed were Mayor Joseph Verducci and Francis Pacelli. Said the mayor, "Certainly we appreciate the value of the Christmas tree and the spirit it brings. But I question this heavy expenditure of public funds. It will run about $2000.

Even $1000 is a lot of money for such a project."

Pacelli joined Verducci in opposing the outlay from unappropriated funds. "We haven't received much response from merchants to help this cause. I don't think the city should continue to foot the bill," said the freshman councilman.

Vickers reminded that the city has about $1000 to buy the tree and its huge array of lights. "True, the final expense may seem high, but I can't think of a better cause," Wilson agreed. "We need Christmas spirit."

City Manager Howard Stites estimated the tree and lights would cost about $1500.

SF, School Accord Is Reached

Jefferson Elementary School district will get its money for purchase of the Gen. Pershing school site—for some seven acres of it anyway.

Finance for purchasing the remaining 3.5 acres from City of San Francisco will be withheld, according to a compromise settlement ordered Monday at a hearing before the state allocations board.

Both the local school district and San Francisco appeared to accept the decision as at least a temporary solution to the bitter controversy that has raged over the district's acquisition of land in San Francisco county.

Jefferson High School trustees went on record Monday as opposing the merger of five northern San Mateo county school districts, adding another to the many protests expected at the December 6 public hearing here on unification.

High school trustees said they favored the study of the proposed unification of Jefferson High, Jefferson, Laguna Salada, Baysmore and Brisbane elementary districts, "but not at this time."

The board observed that "at least three of the districts involved have extreme problems," and as Superintendent Edward Morgan said, "We don't want to inherit these problems."

Also cited as an argument against the unification study was the fact that while the committee to study unification has been created, it has not been allocated money to carry out its research. "The work automatically falls on the hands of local administrators," pointed out Morgan.

Trustee Don Miller, speaking also for the Laguna Salada district, said, "The school staffs just do not have the time."

None of the other school boards involved have displayed any enthusiasm over pursuing a long-range unification study. Testimony brought out at a hearing here December 6 at Westmore High school library will be a guide to determining whether studies on unification should be pressed.

The hearing is being called by the San Mateo County Committee of School District Reorganization. The Citizens Committee for Better Schools, a local organization, was instrumental in having the hearings called, having expressed interest in the savings possible under one unified school district for the entire north county.

A single unified district would be responsible for all education from kindergarten through 12th grade. It would be governed by a single board of trustees, responsible for all expenditures and policies now handled by five separate districts.

Next week's hearings will start at 8 p.m.

Chamber Installs Murphy As New Board President

Postmaster Vince Murphy was welcomed as new president of the Chamber of Commerce board of directors Thursday night in an official installation banquet at Westlake Joe's attended by 70 people.

Murphy, former vice president, succeeds Hugh Smith Jr., who was presented a desk set in token of his work for the chamber. Smith's gift was accepted by his wife, due to his illness.

Ted Harris, First Western Bank, is the new vice president.

Others on the board for the coming year are William Sweeney Jr., treasurer; Jack Kendree, secretary, and Peter J. Markovich, managing director.

Entertainment was provided by a combo featuring Gil O'Shaughnessy, Joe Lewkowitz, Elio Fontana and Kendree.

Hi School Trustee Breaks His Leg In Truck Mishap

Veteran high school trustee and contractor Loyal Ingersoll, long-time Daly City resident, is recuperating in St. Luke's hospital today following surgery for a broken leg.

Ingersoll, who lives at 439 Crocker avenue, was injured Monday afternoon last week when his truck crashed into him as he was getting a tool from his garage. He had left the truck parked in the driveway with its motor running.

Ingersoll is in room 409 at St. Luke's, 27th and Valencia streets. The leg was damaged so badly that the Daly City man probably won't be up to par for several months.

Paving Program For 2 Miles Of Streets

A program to re-surface some two miles of badly rutted city streets has been approved by the city council.

All the new signals are traffic actuated and are still being surveyed daily by state engineers to determine if the flow of vehicles and the timing of the signals are providing a smooth flow of traffic and maintaining safety standards.

Total cost of the signals project was $52,660, of which Daly City contributes $18,995.

The state is currently conducting traffic studies to determine if another battery of signals is needed at the Westmoor and Westridge intersections on Skyline.

Drop Protest On Extension Of White Street

Doelger agreed not to construct a road more than 60 feet wide and would construct an underpass beneath White street to connect Benjamin Franklin and Garden Village school playgrounds.

The county right of way at the southerly end of White street is 120 feet, but the school district maintains that to make the street extension wider than 60 feet might endanger children at play in nearby recreation areas.

The planning commission will make its recommendation to the board of supervisors on the proposed extension of White street.

St. Martin's Aids World Relief Fund

World relief will receive the thank offering to be made Thursday by St. Martin's Episcopal church at its special Thanksgiving communion service at 10 a.m. in Westlake Auditorium, 333 Park Plaza drive. Designated as the "Presiding Bishop's Fund for World Relief," this collection is a national project of the Episcopal church to aid international welfare.

Officiating at the Thanksgiving service will be the Rev. Allen J. Downey, vicar, who also holds Sunday services in the auditorium at 8, 9:30, and 11 a.m. during construction of the new church at Southgate avenue and Bradley drive.

When a bus or truck is stopped at an intersection the wise motorist looks carefully before passing it. A pedestrian crossing the street in front of the large vehicle may be hidden, reminds the California State Automobile Association. When you approach such a vehicle, look carefully before you proceed.

DC GARDEN CLUB SETS POT LUCK FEED DECEMBER 2

Daly City Garden club will have its Christmas family potluck dinner on Monday, Dec. 2, at 6:30 o'clock, at the Colma community center, Dunks street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Mollette plan to show their slides of their recent European trip, followed by Christmas caroling. Christmas gifts and decorations made by members will be on sale to help fill Christmas lists. Mrs. Richard Hunter, JU 7-8229, is food chairman. Her staff consists of Mrs. Joseph Schultz, Mrs. Thomas Parish and Mrs. Andrew Bretz Jr.

A white ribbon was awarded the Daly City Garden club when Mrs. Harvey L. Collin, Mrs. Wm Van Herick and Mrs. E. Kohlhauf exhibited an arrangement "Auld Lang Syne" on November 14 at the Beresford Garden Club's Flower show, Hillsdale Methodist church. The arrangement followed a New Year's theme carried out by red and white carnations, top hat and champagne glass filled with glass bubbles.

At the November 18 District 4-B meeting of the California Garden clubs, Inc., at the Villa Chatter, San Mateo, the club was presented with a certificate of achievement for perfection award for their Standard Flower Show of 1956.

New slate of officers for 1958 are: Mrs. Bretz, president; Mrs. Joseph Schultz, first vice president; Mrs. Lynn Cinti, second vice president; Mrs. C. M. Yohn, secretary; and Richard Hunter, treasurer.

Speaking on Christianity in Formosa, Taiwan, and China, the Rev. Theodore Yeh, Episcopal missionary from Formosa, addressed St. Martin's Episcopal Men's club Tuesday evening, November 19, in the meeting room of J. C. Penney's Westlake store.

Film highlights of the San Francisco 49ers' 1956 season were also on the program, which was attended by 18 men. Election of officers will take place at the group's next meeting in January, according to Richard T. Phillips, organizer and spokesman of the group.

One of the most important things in keeping the motor of your car in good condition is regular changing of the crankcase oil and the oil filter in accordance with the manufacturer's recommendations. City Manager Howard Stites had reminded that since the Caesar-Callan interests own less than half of the land in the assessment district, it would be unfair to let the subdividers control the engineering and legal work.

The council verdict on the two variances thus erased the firm's fears that additional delays would mean it would fail to meet its loan deadline on the entire apartment project.

In other major business, the council unanimously approved purchase of new police radio equipment from the low bidder, General Electric, at a total cost of $15,473. Alternate bid on a lease-purchase, four-year contract, with RCA, was for $17,044.04.

The accepted bid includes cost of installation and maintenance for a five-year period. The new equipment should be available by January, a General Electric spokesman said. The funds will come from unappropriated reserve.

Councilmen agreed that improvements on the present police radios wouldn't be practical in the long run.

The council accepted low bid of Pacific Indemnity company in amount of $13,746.31 per annum for liability coverage the next three years. Other bidder was Globe Indemnity, with a quote of $20,325.79 a year.

In other main business, the council:

1. Approved reinstallation of parking meters in 6500 block of Mission street as requested by the majority of store owners.

2. Denied request of Vince Merlo, 6278 Mission, for rezoning of two lots in Hillcrest tract on Vendome from R-1 to R-3 for 8-unit apartment project.

3. Returned to planning commission for further study request of Henry Doelger for rezoning of Westlake Unit 4 to R-3 for apartment buildings.

4. Granted dance permit to August Sebastiani at the Central Club, 6282 Mission.

5. Rejected and referred to city attorney claim for Mrs. R. Keller, 34 Clifton drive, for punctured tire ($49) resulting from faulty guard rail on Los Banos avenue.

6. Granted use permit on two bill boards to West Coast Advertising Agency, to be located on the east side of Junipero Serra, 600 feet north of School street.

ALEMANY BOULEVARD ALL LIT UP

Alemany boulevard in Daly City was "all lit up" last Thursday, as the state highway department put three new traffic signals into operation.

While engineering surveys are still in progress to chart the efficiency of the new traffic control measures, it appears that already the new signals have done a great deal to improve traffic movement and cut down accident potentialities.

This is particularly evident at the Junipero Serra-Alemany-Knowles intersection, where monumental traffic snarls occurred almost daily as drivers attempted to make left turns either off Alemany or Knowles onto Junipero Serra.

The one-way signal phase for east and west bound traffic on Alemany and Knowles now makes it possible for a motorist to proceed to Junipero Serra without risking life and limb, not to mention the invectives heaped on him by drivers attempting to proceed straight through.

A great deal of credit goes to many segments of the community for calling the state's attention to the acute need for the signals.

The city, Westlake Improvement association, local school districts, churches and other organizations were instrumental in obtaining the signals.

Their joint efforts are now being directed toward acquisitions of signals or some other traffic safety measures for the Westridge and Westmoor intersections on Skyline boulevard, where hundreds of children will have to pass daily to and from the Palisades to reach school.

We are confident that a vigorous campaign, armed with factual argument, not merely hysterical shrieks, will bring the needed signals to Daly City.

The various organizations have demonstrated that by pulling together they can sell their point to the state officials.

We think the state should buy the Skyline signals in the not too distant future.

Hanna Boys' Center Sends Report To 'Stockholders' In This Area

The annual report of one of California's most unusual "corporations" was sent to the TIMES this week, with the request that local "stockholders" be advised of corporate progress.

The non-profit corporation is Hanna Boys' Center, the California "boys' town" which has been built near Sonoma entirely by voluntary contributions and bequests. The stockholders, according to the Rt. Rev. William L. O'Connor, director of the attractive little town in the Valley of the Moon, are the many residents of the Daly City area who have contributed to the building and expansion of Hanna Center.

Among the dividends for these donors is the recent arrival of the 60th youngster to find a home at the haven for neglected boys of all races and creeds, in time for the December 4 observance of the eight anniversary of the opening of the home. Chief Justice Earl Warren, then governor of the state, dedicated the 180-acre site after ground-breaking ceremonies led by Bishop Fulton J. Sheen.

The director reported that 1957 has seen growth of the new trade school, and of the ranching activities. The trades program now includes work in such fields as carpentry, electricity, metals, printing and general mechanics. His chief efforts now are centered upon development of this program to the point where all of the lads can prepare for productive citizenship by learning the elements of a useful skill. His success, he said, depends upon continued favorable response to an annual letter of appeal for help which he sends, for the boys, to many California homes.

Hanna Center's primary aim has been the prevention of delinquency before it becomes a fact; to give a real home to the lad in such circumstances that he is, through little or no fault of his own, "pre-delinquent," or "potentially delinquent." The goal is to accept him before he makes a misstep costly to himself and to society.

The director concluded by urging the stockholders to inspect the corporation's assets at any time, as his boys enjoy taking visitors on a tour of their town.

This area is represented on the home's board of directors by Lawrence R. McDonnell, 170 Wilshire Avenue.

JESD Teachers' Institute Set At Colma School

Reading and allied work-study skills will be the theme of Jefferson Elementary school district's Reading Institute this Wednesday in the multipurpose room at Colma school. Approximately 200 teachers will attend, along with representatives from the local PTA groups. Program begins at 8 a.m.

Following the introduction of platform guests, H. Z. Weibel, district superintendent, will address the group and present Dr. Louis Carrillo of San Francisco State college, the keynote speaker. In addition to his professional duties at San Francisco State, Dr. Carrillo, who is a reading specialist with a wide background in remedial reading techniques, is a reading consultant for Sonoma county.

On conclusion of Dr. Carrillo's presentation, the group will divide into eight grade-level discussion sessions led by Mrs. Melanie Fernkes, Miss June Koenig, Mrs. Dorothy Malone, John Belforte, Mrs. Elvera Cody, Miss Cecile Paynter, Carroll Martindale, and Mrs. Ann Gray. The institute group will then pass to 12 workshop groups, led by Mrs. Marilyn Smith, Mrs. Beatrice Maine, Mrs. Clara Klaisner, Mrs. Dorothy Oberlander, Mrs. Alma Ledwith, Mrs. Mary Lewis, Mrs. Claire Ballou, Mrs. Dolores Hawkins, Mrs. Margaret Clarke, Robert LaCava, and Mrs. Eunice Loewke. During this third portion of the institute teachers will view samples and/or illustrations of a variety of reading devices, charts, etc., and will be able to work on reading charts and devices helpful to them in their classroom reading, with materials which will be supplied to them.

The fourth and final period will be devoted to a summation of the day's activities. During this time, Dr. Carrillo will answer the questions brought back from the discussion groups.

Letters To The Editor

Lewkowitz Says Public Can Help School Trustees

Dear Editor:

It seems that often our good citizens surge at what we call good thoughts, by complaining about our school system and how we are unfair in negotiations for school sites and materials.

But are the people really aware of our sincere effort of trying to think and do what the public wants most, to give good education to our children?

Everyone is cordially invited to our meetings, and, as a citizen, you have a right to attend. Come up and help your community in groups such as committees. You may help, criticize or suggest some improvements. You will always get a hearing on good, sound and constructive questions, or if you want to know something about your children's school activities and functions.

Remember, citizens, the welcome mat is always out at the school district office, 48 Park Plaza drive, Westlake. The phone number is PL 5-3341.

Please come to our meetings. The board needs your help, and you need us.

Respectfully,
JOSEPH LEWKOWITZ

Missing Girl, 16, Returns To Parents

A 16-year-old Westmoor girl, missing since Monday last week and believed headed for Reno, returned to her Daly City home Thursday morning, according to police.

The parents of Linda Lou Stagno, 46 Crestwood drive, apartment 8, at first feared she had run away to marry her boyfriend, an 18-year-old Santa Clara youth.

Westlake Housewife In Pill Overdose

A 31-year-old Westlake housewife was taken to Junipero Serra hospital Friday morning after she allegedly swallowed an overdose of sleeping pills.

Mrs. Lorraine Saltzman, 636 North Mayfair, was given lavage treatment, then transferred to a San Francisco hospital.

The woman's husband told police she was worried because of two recent auto accidents.

THE BIG SEVEN

Seven states, reports the National Automobile Club, hold 91 per cent of the nation's proved reserves of crude oil and natural gas liquids: California, Kansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, Texas, Wyoming, and Oklahoma.

Climaxing the day was a luncheon served at the Presidio service club. Steak topped the menu, accompanied by the usual accessories.

SANTA CLAUS arrived, "direct from the north pole," in his fabulous new sleigh last Saturday afternoon, greeting a part of the thousands of young friends who met him at Westlake Shopping Center. He will return from the "North Pole" to Westlake with his toy laden sleigh each Wednesday, Friday and Saturday afternoon until Christmas; with special trips scheduled for the Monday and Tuesday immediately prior to that holiday. He will continue his stay into the evenings on those days when the shopping center remains open until 9 p.m.

500 Attend 'Birth' Of Newest City

With appropriate pomp and circumstance, including press, radio, TV and newsreel coverage, Pacifica became a city Friday night.

The whole affair, which started at 5 p.m. with the formal announcement of Pacifica's incorporation with a telephone call from county Clerk John Bruning, consumed some 10 hours, as enthusiastic new citizens celebrated until 3 a.m. at an inaugural ball held at Nick's Rockaway Cafe.

A crowd of 500 persons, about 150 of whom had to stand, witnessed the evening inauguration at Vallemar school auditorium.

Hosts of Officials

Public officials were there in such staggering numbers that master of ceremonies Municipal Judge Thomas L. Bocci had some difficulty in recognizing all the distinguished guests.

San Francisco Mayor George Christopher and his wife were on hand, and the mayor observed that it was particularly appropriate Pacifica had a woman mayor, Mrs. Jean Fassler, since the city was virtually a "new born babe."

The only city that was conspicuously absent by its failure to send an elected representative was Daly City, Pacifica's closest neighbor.

At 5 p.m. the council—Mrs. Fassler, Harold Feyge, Don Miller, George Mason and Gerry Schumacher—took the telephone call from Bruning that announced Pacifica's incorporation was officially recognized by the state.

Routine Laws

The council then named Schumacher as temporary chairman and proceeded to adopt a series of routine ordinances to get the municipal government functioning.

The 8 o'clock rites, though short, were impressive as hosts of public officials made their appearance and the council members took the oath of office. It was later in the evening that the council ratified what was the obvious appointment of Mrs. Fassler as mayor.

The council has scheduled its regular meeting dates for the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month. They will meet this Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Sharp Park school.

W'lake Thief Gets Cash, Check, Cake

A hungry thief made off with $40 cash and a $5 check Friday night at the home of insurance salesman Thomas J. Jovick, 344 Northgate drive.

Jovick told officers the culprit took the time to slice a piece of cake in the kitchen. He got his loot from atop a bedroom bureau. Nothing else in the house appeared to be disturbed.

Police said the invader got in by prying open a rear window. The Jovick backyard faces the Olympic Club.

In addition to elementary school participation, the "Toys For Tots" program will receive support from various civic, business and fraternal organizations.

The distribution of all toys collected by the Marines will be coordinated by the Christmas Bureau of San Mateo County, a volunteer bureau organized under the San Mateo County Health and Welfare Department and headed this year by Mrs. Arthur Wall, The

COUNTY REPRESENTATIVE

Public Nurse Ruth Boswell Says 'Spirit In Westlake' Is Big Help

By Mrs. Charles Huggins

What generates our public health nurses to operate under top efficiency and enthusiasm is often the stimulus she receives from serving such cooperative communities as Westlake. Mrs. Ruth F. Boswell, public health nurse, working out of our North San Mateo County office in Daly City, reports a genuine community spirit and stability in this area in which she lives and serves.

Westlake is a new residential area made up of principally young families, interspersed with middle aged families and a few older couples, widows and widowers. The young parents are interested in good medical care for their children, including health supervision and correction of any crippling defects. Daughters and sons want the best care for their mothers and fathers who need teaching and help with health problems (diabetes, cardiac conditions, acute illnesses, such as after-care of pneumonia, fractured hips, etc.).

As a resident in the community and a member of one of the churches, Mrs. Boswell meets on a semi-social and community service level many of the adult members of the families she sees as public health nurse. She helps in the activities of the women's church group and takes part in certain affairs of the group in the church itself. The church groups have a civic make-up also, in that membership in the groups is open to those living in the area belonging to other congregations (or none at all) who are interested in the community's welfare. This is one instance of the over-all community responsibility of the group by its members.

One of the nurse's most satisfactory contacts is with one of the parochial schools in the community. Here the Sisters are deeply interested in each child's welfare. While the nurse spends only a short time there, the plan is such that complete cooperation is achieved. The teachers refer the children to the nurse. Several of these referrals have been for problems in seeing the blackboard and headaches. Acuity of vision is tested with the Snellen chart and if the findings are such that might indicate some difficulty, the principal is contacted and arrangements made to either telephone or visit in the home. This practice has resulted in several children having examinations by eye specialists, at which time it was found that corrective glasses were needed. These contacts have given the nurse an opportunity to interpret the combined nursing services of the Visiting Nursing Association and the County Health Department.

The educational aspect of public health nursing is stressed in an area like Westlake. The patients ask questions. They are eager to learn about activities and practices affecting their own and their families' health. Many referrals for service have come directly from other patients served. In January of 1957 there were 35 families receiving varied services from the public health nurse in Westlake; three months later there were 57. At present there are at least four families who are interested in Child Guidance help.

Young Married Guild Sets Annual Carnival

The Young Married Guild of Congregation Beth Shalom, 14th avenue and Clement street, is holding its Annual Carnival on Sunday, December 8.

Each year the Guild endeavors to provide funds for some worthwhile organization. In the past, funds have been given to Guide Dogs for the Blind, Aid to Retarded Children, and for the improvement of instruction of children at the Sunday School. This year the proceeds are to be used to help orphans in Israel.

The carnival is an all day affair, beginning at noon and lasting until 11 p.m. Games, prizes, and refreshments have been arranged for children and adults. Highlight of the day will be the awarding of a TV set. Other prizes will be toys, bags of groceries, and small household appliances such as electric irons, toasters, and radios.

Co-chairmen Joyce Siegel and Sid Koss have an active committee which has been hard at work to make this one of the most outstanding affairs of the year.

TV and Radio

By Mona Baker

Almost as exciting as earth satellites and space travel in our world of the future will be the changes in the educational field through the use of television.

"Children taught by television in the classroom," you exclaim. . . . "I don't think that will happen" . . . but it has already happened. Thirteen educational television stations throughout the country are offering programs designed primarily for elementary and secondary students. Station WQED in Pittsburgh began its third year of direct teaching this fall and has been offering daily classes with over 3500 children in 146 schools participating.

This was one of the accomplishments discussed by Charles Hettinger, television education director for the Pittsburgh schools, who addressed a conference of over 150 leading Bay Area educators held at KQED's studios to explore the question of classroom instruction by television. From their three year's experience, Mr. Hettinger said they learned many important facts. He said "television can do something for schools that no other media can do." They discovered that "youngsters feel a great closeness to the television teacher" and actually raise their hands when asked a question. Classes became so interested in television subjects they demanded time afterwards to continue discussions with their regular teacher. Teachers were extremely enthusiastic about the project, and the most enthusiastic were those who had participated for three years. Participation was purely voluntary.

One of the main objections of educators to whom we have talked concerning school television is the difficulty of finding space and moving youngsters to the TV set. The answer, we believe, is having portable TV sets which can be quickly moved from classroom to classroom.

Also at the meeting, KQED General Manager James Day outlined some of the Channel 9 programs that are immediately available for in-school viewing. With the passage of the new state law permitting school districts to spend funds for the production of educational television programs, we certainly hope Bay Area school districts won't delay any longer in taking advantage of KQED's outstanding programs.

Looking even farther ahead into the future, with international television just around the corner, we can foresee the day, when youngsters will be sitting in their classrooms studying about Europe . . . suddenly with a twist of the dial through the magic of television they will be in Europe. Then television will truly be a "window to the world."

'Salesman' Uses Bad Credit Card

Daly City police are hunting a husky gent, said to be in his late twenties, who made a $165.85 "purchase" with a stolen credit card at a service station here Tuesday last week.

Bill Way, owner of the Standard Station, 2089 Junipero Serra boulevard, said the customer, about 6-2 and 220 pounds, bought four new tubeless tires, a full tank of gas, and two cans of auto wax by using a card signed by "C. L. Blalock."

The suspect, who said he was a salesman "heading for Oregon," was accompanied by an unidentified female. They drove away in a 1955 Chevrolet Bel Air.

Veterans News

By Grace J. Hill

THE RIGHT WAY TO APPEAL A V.A. DECISION

Veterans who have been notified that their disability rating has been reduced or terminated by the Veterans Administration are offered the following advice:

If you plan any action at all, don't delay; you have only one year to submit evidence to keep your case current. Don't file an appeal until you have consulted your service officer about new evidence; a denial of the appeal by the VA will all but close your case.

In a nation-wide benefits review over the last three years, the VA terminated compensation and pension payments to 23,000 World War II veterans and decreased payments to 20,000 others after finding that their condition had improved.

Veterans have been notified of their right to appeal the V.A.'s findings to the Board of Veterans Appeals. Where the VA finds the disability reduced in severity, contrary medical evidence will be necessary. Where the VA has ruled that the disability was not the result of military service as originally supposed, stronger evidence of service connection will have to be found. The VA's findings can go either way. The recent review brought about 5,400 increases in monthly payments to match a worsening of the degree of disability.

Simply filling out and mailing an appeal form to the VA without consulting a service officer or veterans rating specialist and without submitting significant diagnostic evidence will almost surely result in a turn-down.

You wouldn't think of taking a case to court without an attorney. Service officers perform the same function—at no charge.

Unit Activities

The Gift Shop at Palo Alto hospital will open to the patients on Monday, December 2. Members from all the units of the American Legion Auxiliary in San Mateo County will be present to assist veterans in selecting gifts for their families at home, and will wrap and mail them. The shop will be open for five days.

Westlake Post 535, American Legion, will hold a ham dinner, Saturday evening, December 7, at the Westlake Improvement Clubhouse, 7 p.m. Members and friends will attend.

San Mateo Voture 393, 40 & 8, will hold a turkey whist at Burlingame Legion Hall, Saturday evening, December 7, 8:30 p.m. All members of the American Legion and Auxiliary and their friends are invited. Many valuable prizes.

Daly City Unit 410, American Legion Auxiliary, has adopted a veteran at Palo Alto hospital. He will be remembered on his birthday and all other holidays. This helps brighten the many long days spent there. At the regular meeting held Wednesday evening, several new members were initiated. Also, Vivian Pahlka was installed second vice president.

Vista Grande Chapter 77, American War Mothers, held installation of officers Thursday evening. In a very impressive ceremony, State President Mary Corel, assisted by the State 3rd Vice President Laura Frazier, installed the following officers: President, Winifred Evans; 1st Vice President, Irene Library; 2nd Vice President, Jacoba Horning; Secretary, Chrystal Schuesler; Treasurer, Freda Gerberding; Sergeant-at-arms, Mary Mary Thompson. Preceding the installation of officers, San Francisco Rainbow Auxiliary 2065, VFW, presented the chapter with a beautiful American Flag. President Bobbie Delso made the presentation, assisted by the Patriotic Instructor.

Retiring President Ann Walters received the flag for the chapter. Many visitors from Santa Clara, Los Gatos, San Francisco, and other organizations greeted the new officers.

The 26th District of the American Legion will hold its regular meeting, Friday evening, December 6th, in Brisbane Legion Hall. Commander Roy Henderson will preside. Department Commander, Al Charnie was honored guest of the District at the last meeting.

Members of the James L. Snell PTA heard an encouraging report on the Jefferson Elementary school district's curriculum and grade achievement level from Dr. Dan Dawson, executive secretary for California Elementary School Administrators Association, Tuesday evening last week at Benjamin Franklin school.

Dr. Dawson explained that the first concern in their testing survey was to find out what the capacities and probabilities for JESD and secondly, the concern with the academic aptitude of the students. "The district is correcting the weaknesses," he said, "and is keeping abreast of the mobility problem of the community."

The testing of the students was done in groups with the Iowa Basic Skills testing series and revealed that academically the children were above average. In the fourth grade, 25% of the children were of fifth grade level. As the grade levels advanced the intelligence ratings dropped. Dr. Dawson explained that this was partially due to the new and changing community and displayed no reflection on this district's teaching methods, since the majority of the children had previously been in one or more other schools.

Need Improvement

"The greatest area for improvement is in reference material skills," said Dr. Dawson.

He also predicted that in future years there would be a larger group of gifted children in this area and plans should be formulated to care for them. His suggestion for this need was to have "partial segregation," having them attend regular classes, except for special class periods during the day or week in advanced science, mathematics, literature or art, such as the district program now for children who specialize in music.

A question period followed Dr. Dawson's speech with many questions directed at double sessions and the homework problem. Dr. Dawson remarked that children in double sessions do not suffer academically, but only through the lack of opportunity for enrichment activity in the music and literature fields. Supt. H. Z. Weibel answered the questions on homework for children, by stating that the district had a formulated policy towards homework of which each teacher was aware and that this personal issue should be discussed between the parent and the teacher.

BEFORE IT RAINS
The California State Automobile Association recommends that you check the condition of the windshield wipers on your car before the wet weather begins. Don't wait until the first storm to discover your wiper blades are not in good working condition. Have them checked the next time you pull into a service station.

Girl Scout troop 24, with Mrs. Allan Mori as leader, presented the flag and then led the unit in the pledge of allegiance and in singing "God Bless America."

Mrs. Fred Smith, president, introduced as guests, Supt. Weibel, Dr. Vince Stratton, Dr. Douglas Harkness, Mrs. Arthur Huebel, president, Hillside PTA, and Mrs. W. L. Leavick, past president of Westlake-Olympia PTA.

Mrs. Jack Bertken reported that the civilian defense name tags for school children would be arriving shortly and anyone that had not ordered one could still do so by calling her at PL 6-3353. "The membership campaign was very successful," reported Mrs. M. M. Eastman, membership co-chairman, "with 717 full memberships and 256 half memberships being subscribed to at the present time."

Program Ideas
Mrs. Walter Erickson, vice president and program chairman, asked that suggestions for types of programs desired by the members be dropped into the suggestion box. Mrs. Erickson told of the Christmas program being planned by Miss C. Pelicon for the Benjamin Franklin school and her urgent need for assistance in costume-making and stage properties. Anyone who could volunteer should contact Miss C. Pelicon as soon as possible.

Six additional rain outfits for traffic patrols of Garden Village and Benjamin Franklin will be purchased by the Snell PTA unit.

The 39th annual National Book Week was observed by a book display originated by Mrs. Samuel Stein, books, music and drama chairman. Jeff's 'Big Three' Pave Win Over SSF, 20-19

Tapia, Ryan, Garcia Spark Nerve-Busting Nod In Traditional

By Roy Hurlbert

Confident Paul Tapia and his equally superb targets, Pete Garcia and Gary Ryan, showed all-league form Friday night as they gunned Joe McGrath's Jefferson Indians to a thrilling 20-19 season-ending Big Game decision over valiant South City.

The 33rd game between the long-time rivals probably was one of the best. It was clean and hard fought to the final gun. Nobody had any excuses and all were entertained.

Team Effort

Tapia's airship (he hit 19 for 35) and some timely running by Pat Lena and Sonny Martinez made the Indians' 10th win in the series a real team effort. South City has captured 18 contests and five resulted in ties.

Garcia and Ryan, Jeff's line bidders for All-Peninsula recognition, were never better. Pete hauled in two scoring passes and kicked a conversion to give him 52 points for the season, second in league scoring. Ryan, clutching the third Indian tally, one of his nine catches for the evening. Earlier in the campaign, Gary set a PL record by snaring 10 Tapia aeriels.

Lena and Martinez, physically better than at any time since the campaign began, managed 43 yards apiece as they shared ground honors. Had Pat and Sonny been healthy season-long, there's no telling how high the Tribe would have finished.

Third Place

Jeff's nod Friday gave the Indians a 3-3 loop mark and 3-5 for the campaign. If Hillsdale loses Thursday to Cap, McGrath's team will share third place with the Knights.

The Indians led all the way against the Warriors. Though their edge was never safe, first quarter was give and take and no scoring. Tapia then cranked his engine and nine plays later his mates had boomed 72 yards for the game's first tally. Lena, the boomer coaches want at fullback, was the spark in the explosion, banging off tackle savagely as Tapia mixed his calls to keep the Warriors confused.

The six points came from the nine as Paul shot perfectly to Garcia, all alone and way behind his defenders. Pete then toed the extra point out of Barry Haanen's hold for 7-0 with about 4 minutes left in the half.

Ray DeJong's Warriors socked 60 yards in five plays early in the next period to bring the count to 7-6. Steve Anderson's consecutive line bucks got the score. It remained that way because junior tackle John Dean blocked the Warrior conversion try.

Tapia retaliated quickly from the Jeff 34 on the kickoff. Two catches by Garcia and two to Ryan, the clincher from the two, widened Jeff's lead to 13-6. Garcia was clobbered when he tried to recover a high pass from center on the extra point attempt.

Warriors Retaliate

Three minutes later, South City was back in the thing for a tie score, busting loose a 69-yard march. From the 18, Norm Carter blazed off tackle, fumbled, but teammate Bob Dickey grabbed the hide on the 12 and scooted into the end zone. Mickey Corso got the extra point.

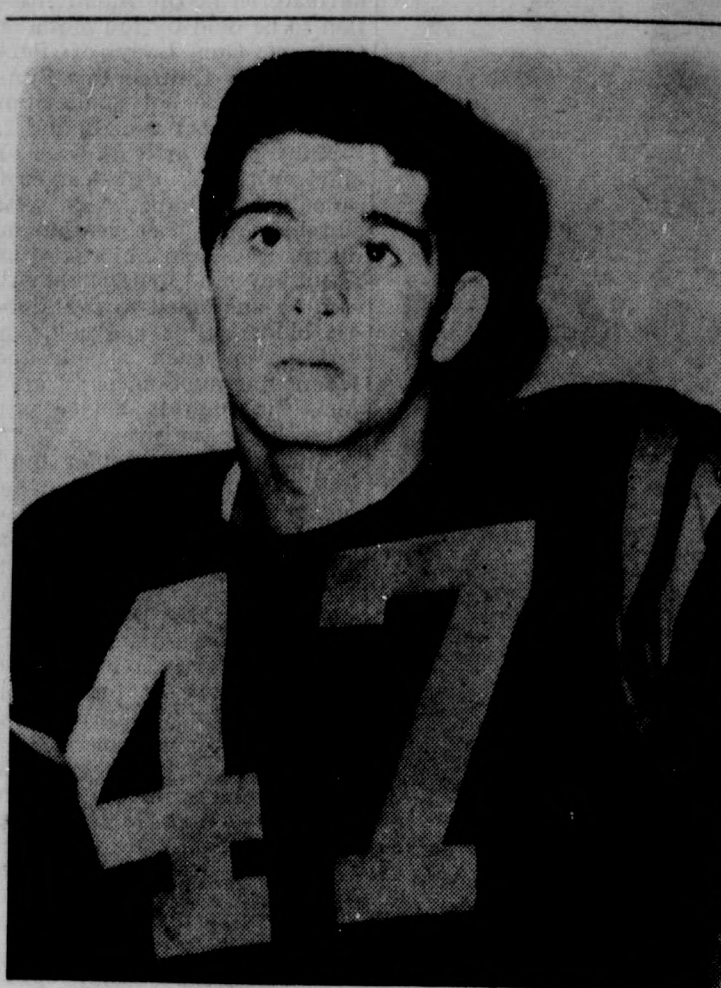

Tapia to Garcia two minutes later gave Jeff the deciding TD, climaxing a 67-yard push with a 15-yard completion. Instead of kicking the PTA, Garcia crossed up the Warriors with a surprise pass to Ryan. This was the margin of triumph.

The nip-and-tuck pattern continued minutes later as Anderson's 15-yard pass to Carter changed the scoreboard to 20-19. Corso's fateful PAT was wide.

Jeff almost had a fourth TD with three minutes left, but a pass interception killed the drive at the Warrior 36.

In ground yardage South City cruised to a 231-96 edge. Carter was the workhorse, with 135 yards on 14 carries.

Tapia's passing gave Jeff the air margin, 234 yards to 177. Anderson lofted 11 for 22 for the losers.

PASS-HAPPY Paul Tapia wound up his Jefferson career with a roar Friday night, firing three scoring passes as his Indian mates nipped always-tough South City in their Big Game, 20-19. Tapia is a sure choice for all-league honors. He leads the Peninsula loop in total offense, TD tosses (18) and passing yardage. The lad, a fine arts major, may wind up at USC, but he hasn't made a decision as yet.

SF 49er Bob St. Claire Addresses, Decorates Colma Award Winners

Bob St. Claire, San Francisco 49er offensive tackle, was guest speaker at the first award assembly held last Friday at Colma school.

St. Claire, injured in the S. F.-Rams game, who will shortly rejoin the team in New York, spoke on good sportsmanship, and recalled many amusing incidents in professional football.

St. Claire presented ribbons to the winners of the Colma intramural football leagues. First place ribbon in the seventh grade league went to Mr. Greene's Colma Kings, captained by Don Hermosillo. First place ribbons in the eighth grade American League went to Mrs. Barbee's Phantoms, Nairn Albert, Captain, and in the National League to Mrs. Fennessey's Sparkplugs, captained by Ed Koplowitz.

Certificates for outstanding touch-tackle players of Colma's seventh grade, were presented by St. Claire to Don Hermosillo and Mike DeBernardi. Outstanding player award went to Bob Miller of the eighth grade varsity team. Block C's, the highest award given at Colma to boys and girls who have earned points in a variety of categories including scholarship, sports, service, music, drama and student government, were presented by Lloyd Andrews, vice-principal, to the following students: Adele Sanders, Laury Jaspovice, Ted Pickrell, Carlos Rivas, Terry Boyle, Nancy McDonald, Glen Hilton, Kathleen Eschler, Theresa Lopez, George Sakaladasis, Lorraine Storm, Robert Sikora, Richard Hanick, Linda Howes, Sherry Fox, and Diane Pulsifer.

Scribes Pick Verducci Northern California's 'Coach Of The Year'

Daly City's hustling mayor, Joe Verducci, Monday was awarded his "due" when the Northern California Football Writers association named him "Coach of the Year" in Northern California.

Verducci's outstanding San Francisco State guard, Floyd Peters, was chosen "Lineman of the Year" for the same area.

Verducci, now in his eighth season as the head mentor for the Gators, led the local eleven to their fourth Far Western Conference crown in five years; as a member of the FWC, San Francisco State won the crown in 1950, 1954, 1956 (three way tie with Humboldt State and California Aggies) and 1957. In 1955, the Gators took second place.

As head coach for the San Francisco State grid squads, the "Little Magician" from the Lake Merced campus has won 50 games, lost 23 contests, and tied 1 game—for a .675 percentage.

Verducci, a graduate of the University of California, has been one of the Bay Area's outstanding grid mentors, having guided the football destinies of Polytechnic High in San Francisco, the U. S. Coast Guard at Alameda during World War II, and St. Mary's college of Moraga.

San Jose Overcomes Stubborn Rams, 31-6

San Jose's invading Bulldogs, scared out of their nylon pantalons for 2½ quarters, exploded in the final 15 minutes here Friday to head home with a 31-6 victory over hungry Westmoor.

The one-sided score against the resident Rams is deceiving. They played to the hilt in the campaign before superior odds took their expected toll.

In dropping the exhibition contest, the Daly City squad finished with an overall 1-7 record. Their win was a 6-0 lid-lifter over Willow Glen of San Jose, also a practice battle. Pete Matis's lads fell in all six Peninsula League games to wind up in the basement.

San Jose, with QB Dave Serrano as good as his clippings, had its hands full most of the way. The Bulldogs scored on their first scrimmage play, found themselves tied 6-all minutes later, then went ahead to stay—also in the first period—on Serrano's 49-yard arterial to Dick Webster.

Serrano's passing and a pass interception late in the third quarter paved three insurance Bulldog tallies. The San Jose line was much sharper after a sluggish start.

Serrano, a one-man offense, engineered his mates to 260 rushing yards and 216 in the air. Westmoor got 87 on the ground and 29 upstairs. Ram QB Dave Simons completed only 6 out of 17. Dave's ends, however, weren't so glue-fingered Friday.

Bob Roller, Matis's all-around ace, piled up 53 yards on nine trips with some good running. His 5-yard trip off tackle accounted for the only Ram tally, ending a 35-yard march.

The Rams elected Ray West, senior end from the Coasts, captain for the year. At the same time, they picked Roller and Simons to share co-captaincies for the 1958 season.

Matis, who had hoped for a 3-3 league mark, has only six dependables coming back next year. Playing their final game were seniors Mike Abrahamson, West, Sid Swanson, Jim Lansing, Marty Kneidel, Bob Simi, Steve Robinson, Leo Wyrick, Rich Hottel, Mike Kephart and Cliff Cushing.

Matis believes Peninsula sportswriters should accord some recognition to end Swanson and Roller when the all-loop squads are selected. This pair, according to Pete, were Westmoor's leaders this fall.

Jeff's Cloutier Top Performer For Cal Frosh

By Bob Rubin

BERKELEY. — One of the leading varsity football prospects at University of California next year will be 6 foot 3 inches Tom Cloutier, a starting end on the unbeaten California freshman team this season from Jefferson High of Daly City.

Cloutier started the year as a second-stringer, but his excellent defensive work soon moved him into a starting position. He started Cal's last two games against USC and Stanford.

The chances for a place on the Bears' traveling squad for Cloutier in 1958 will be considerably enhanced by the graduation of three of California's top four ends.

Because Cloutier is rated as a fine defensive player, he will have to be reckoned with next year. The primary function of Cal ends is their defense, since the Bears' split-T offense makes running predominant over passing.

Freshman football coach John Ralston called Tom a fine all-around player. He said that although Cloutier's offensive work is secondary to his defensive play, he is nevertheless a fine pass receiver.

The 200-pound end, an all-PAL flanker at Jefferson, is also trying out for the California freshman basketball team.

Tom's home address is 433 Westlake avenue, Daly City.

Rec Department's Bob Leibe Takes Olympic Club Job

Bob Leibe, 28, a San Francisco State graduate and Daly City recreation supervisor since February, has resigned his post here to become director of athletics for the San Francisco Olympic Club.

The lanky ex-basketball star will remain here on a part-time basis until a successor is named by Director Dee Van Nest. Actually, Bob submitted his resignation to be effective November 1.

Leibe's getting the Olympic Club post is considered quite a plum. It means a big boost in salary, too.

Bob and his wife, Kay, reside at 1673 8th avenue, San Francisco. She is also an SF State graduate and teaches at Daly City's Crocker elementary school.

Van Nest issued this statement: "We all regret Bob is leaving us. He has worked many extra hours for the youth of this community. We all wish him the best at his new assignment—quite an honor, for sure."

THE PROS are mighty interested in SF State's faultless senior guard, Floyd Peters, a growing 21-year-old who stands 6-3 and scales 220. Northern California football writers Monday voted Floyd "Lineman of the Year." His coach, Joe Verducci, calls the big fellow "the finest griddier I've ever coached."
